ness on Last Day of Meeting.

NORFOLK, VA., November 16.—Bustiness was rushed through with as much expedition as possible to-day owing to the fast that Bishop W. W. Wilson has an engagement in South Carolina, and it was desired that the conference be brought to a close to-night.

The conference convened in its sixth day's session at 9:30 A. M. to-day. Bishop Wilson presiding.

Divine services were conducted by Rev. Francis M. Edwards, of Stony Creek, Va., a superannuated member of the conference. He read the first Psalm as the scripture lesson. Hymn 452—'Jesus, Lover of My Soul'—was sung by the conference, after which it was led in prayer by Mr. Edwards. Rev. Dr. E. H. Rawlings, presiding elder of the Richmond district, requested that the name of the Rev. W. P. Davis be referred to the committee on conference relations to be placed in the superannuated list, and it was o ordered.

The report on the Bible cause was read by its chairman, Rev. W. G. Bates.

The report commended the American Bible Society, which has been in active operation for ninety-two years. The work and advance of the American Bible Society in foreign fields was especially praised.

But especially in Virginia and elsewhere in the South much has been done through the general agents to supply the great horde of foreigners flocking to our shores, many of whom come here with athleistic views. For distribute the word of God among these people $5,000 Bibles had been distributed in these territories during the past year and the American Bible Society hopes to increase this number double during the consing year. The report further rates that 35 special Bible classes had been formed in 1900, and in 1998 that anumber had been increased to 619.

The report closed with the following resolutions:

Mr. Gompers warned the deigates that if a way were found to hide the funds the courts would thereafter appoint a receiver, not necessarily to go cure in some way the hidden fund, but to get the money being contributed.

By request, Mr. Gompers explained the status of the Danbury hat case; "Our standing is menaced by the courts of law," said he. The matter of the application of the Sherman anti-trust law to unions has reached final adjustment by the United States Supreme Court. No matter how the Danbury case is decided, that will not alter the status one jot. The United States Supreme Court has said the final word, and the law of this country is that labor organizations of this country are now conspiracies and combinations in restraint of trade.

"Under the Sherman anti-trust law honest business cannot be conducted, much less honest, straightforward labor organizations. With reference to the case against me in the District of Co-

Mr. Helgelein said he wrote again to Mrs. Gunness, receiving a repny dated April 11, 1998. After stating that she had tried in every way to find some trace of Andrew, Mrs. Gunness continued:

"A man named Lamphere, who worked for me for a while, said he had heard he was in South Dakota from some one he knew in Mansfield, and he had also probably told them about the $10,000. I knew right away that it was a lie. Others have told me that Lamphere was jealous of Andrew, and for that reason troubled me this way, but to me he did not say anything, and I did not mention it to him when Andrew left. The reason Andrew was looking for his brother, he told me, was that both of them left Aberdeen the same day, and that there was some trouble with a man they had found dead there. . . I think it would be best for you to sell the farm and creatures me soon as you can and come here in May. When Andrew comes up there again, which he no doubt will some time, be sure and do not tell him that I told you this or do not tell him that I told you this or do not tell him that I told you this or do not tell him that I told you this or the is hardly anything to do about it."

The correspondence between A. K. Mrs. Gunness is supposed to have murdered Helgelein on January 14th.

Ell Hoover, who lives north of the Cunness farm, testified to seeing a man running across the fields early in the morning of April 28th.

John Ross, a cousin of Lamphere, testified that on the morning of the 28th Lamphere came to his place, about three and a half miles northeast of the Gunness farm, shortly before 6 o'clock to borrow a broad-axe. He told him that he had seen the Gunness house burning. Ross, who knew of the Gunness-Lamphere troubles, told Lamphere he would probably be "pulled." The latter repiled: "I hope the straight of it will come out."

Lamphere told the witness that he had been in Michigan City.

John Westbrook, for whom Lamphere was working, and with whom he had come from the fire, testified that Lamphere appeared at his place at 6:30 A. April 28th and told of seeing a fire, which, he learned, was the Gunness was on the stand when court adjourned.

After much debate the special Council Committee on Mayo's Bridge, at its meeting last night, adopted a resolution presented by Mr. Patram, asking the Manchester Council to request the Richmond City Council to appoint a similar counsitiee, in order that the two bodies jointly might thoroughly bok into the advisability and feasibility of building a new free bridge on the site of the present Mayo's Bridge. The resolution will be referred to the Council for action at its next meeting.

The special Mayo's Bridge Committee was appointed about a month ago, and at first there was some confusion on the part of members as to just what was lits province. Some were of the consulted upon the question on the part of members as to just what was lits province. Some were of the consulted upon the question of a Council committee—whether or not one should be appointed, and what was lits province. Some were of the chair.
